

Lauren Iacoponi

Professional Freelance Writer | Copywriter | Art Critic

ABOUT ME

When I'm not reviewing art I spend my time exhibiting artists, curating shows, and consulting on art acquisitions for corporate and private collections. I am adept in creating and sharing content, conducting research and interviews to develop marketing campaigns, building and managing social media profiles, writing and distributing informative newsletters, handling promotions and marketing, conducting design work, freelance writing, and initiating two successful Kickstarter campaigns.
